Indian equity markets snapped their three-day losing streak and closed higher, despite a rise in crude oil prices amid escalating tensions in the Middle East.

Punjab National Bank plans to enter the wealth management business to diversify revenue streams and strengthen customer engagement. The bank is also expanding its credit card portfolio with a focus on increasing product penetration and fee-based income.

State Bank of India indicated that inflows through FCNR(B) deposits are expected to take around three to four months to be deployed into the banking system. The bank highlighted that the inflows will support liquidity management over time. It also pointed to growing interest in technology-led banking initiatives, including agentic AI, discussed at an industry forum.

HDFC Bank has completed selling a majority of its stake in HDFC Credila, an education finance subsidiary, for Rs 9,553 crore to private equity firms BPEA EQT and ChrysCapital. The bank would no longer have HDFC Credila as a division.

Term of the Day

Risk Management

Definition: Risk management is a process by means of which risks are identified, assessed, monitored and finally mitigated for any process or organisation. It is a process which is considered very critical for proper functioning and maintenance of any organisation. Some of the risks which a company is generally exposed to are financial risk, environmental risk, theft risk besides others.

Explanation

Risk Management is a critical part of organization’s strategy and it is widely seen as an essential part of the business. Companies face various risks and it is strategically very important to make provisions for them and mitigate them wherever possible. Effective risk management practices of the organization makes it less vulnerable and better prepared for uncertainty. Some of the common methods of mitigating risks are transferring it to a third party (insurance), budgeting for the same, implementing stringent control measures and finally creating a backup plan. Let us take an example of a company X based in India.
